2. Gandhiji chided the lawyers for collecting big fee from the peasants. He said that he had come to the conclusion that they should stop going to courts. Taking such cases to the courts did little good. Where the peasants were so crushed and fear-stricken, law courts were useless. The real relief for them was to be free from fear.
3. Aunt Jennifer is old and submissive woman. But the tigers she is embroidering on the panel appear to be bold and chivalric. They are the expression of her own dreams and desires. She tries to live her dream through the tigers that symbolize everything that she could think of.
4. The very first line contains the message that John Keats, the great Romantic poet, wants to convey. Keats was a worshipper of beauty. For him beauty was truth and truth, beauty. Hence, for him a thing of beauty is a joy forever. Beauty never fades. Nor is it ever devalued. It never passes into nothingness. When we are full of sorrows and sufferings, some form of beauty comes to our rescue. It removes the pall of sadness and sorrows and gives us joy and pleasure. Thus, beauty is a boon for human beings.

5. Mr. Lamb used to keep his gates open always for anyone to enter freely. So they could enjoy the beauty of the garden, also the children could relish on the juicy apples from the trees in garden. He holds no prejudices against anyone and welcomes everyone equally.
6. In Jack's story the role of the owl was very important as he used to guide the animal (Roger) with problems to the wizard. Thus, owl was the linking channel between the wizard and Roger – the animal.

VI. Long Answer type:4 × 2 = 8

1. Some beautiful shape or a thing of beauty removes the pall of sadness from our hearts or spirits. In the poem 'A thing of beauty' which has been composed by John Keats; the poet says that all our sadness could be removed only because of the nature's beauty. These beauties are like Grandeurs of doom, the sun, the moon, old & young trees, simple sheep, daffodils and clear rills. And when we think of short tales and all these beauties, all our sadness disappears from our dark spirits.
